within the meaning of the law of that state; and the same high authority decides inferentially that His Excellency Benjamin F. Butler is no lawyer.

This is the way it came about. Mrs. Clara T. Leonard was a member of the Board of Health, Lunacy and Charity. Mrs. Leonard of Health, Lunacy and Charity. Mrs. Leonard was not servicable to the Governor, and the Governor took it into his head to turn Mrs. Leonard out, planting himself on the lofty ground that a woman is not a "person." The full bench, and a very distinguished bench it is, justifies the refusal of the Council to accept the Governor's view. The statute provides that the board shall be composed of "nine persons." The court "Where is your master?" he inquired of "Where is your master?" he inquired of "Where is your master?" he inquired of

The statute provides that the board shall be composed of "nine persons." The court has no doubt that in its natural and usual significance the word "persons" includes women, and more than that it is constantly so used in the statutes of Massachusetts. But the intent of the law is made clear be yound controversy by another section of the yound controversy by another section of the ap-

The carp was originally a native of central Asia. It was introduced into Austria in 1227, into Eugland in 1504, and into this country in 1880. The first experiment here, though, proved a fallure, and the fish was almost unknown until Mr. Hessel brought 345 of the different varieties from Bremen for the United States fish commission, in May, 1877.

The other day a Griffin, Ga., grocer sold an old farmer agallon of tar, through mistake, for molasses. After discovering the mistake, he waited to hear some complaint, but hearing none, wrote to the old sellow, who replied as follows: "Much obliged for the creckshun, but it come too late, as all the stuff is done sopped up. WASHINGTON'S SWEETHEARTS. How the Father of His Country Was Left

Warlike sentiments on certain subject still lingered in the heart of Washington on that peaceful morning a hundred years ago, when he resumed possession of this city. As he crossed Spuyten Duyvii creek and made his way upon the island the tarry, as Sir Guy Carleton was not yet embarked. So he directed his steps to a great mposing wooden house on Washington Heights, still standing, and known as the Jumel place. This house, twenty-seven years before had been his Mecca. Here he courted the beautiful and wealthy Mary Phillips:, here for weeks he lingered in the light of her blue eyes; kere Le left her at her ather's till he could hurry off and capture

After all that has been raid by legislative bodies and by the courts it seems a long leap backwards to stand on the ground that a women into a person. A woman is set away.

Anesdate of the Little Corporal.

Prony, with his hair nearly in my plate was telling me most entertaining anec-dotes of Bonaparte, and Cavier, with his moral character, may be admitted to practice as an attorney. Yet a case coming up under that statute, the Supreme Court held that while in the common sense women are citizens the statute was not presamed to intend to use the word 23 including women, because that was against the unbroken usage of the Commonwealth. The court might also have added that it was against the unbroken prejudice of the bar. That reasoning, however, could be very easily overcome by an act of Legislature.

In every State women ought to be admitted to the bar on equal terms with men. The law allows them free scope in all other employment—why not in the profit iton and practice of the law? If a woman is not fit for the law that is her misfortuce. She will show her unfitners and she will not succeed. The man who cannot hold his own against a woman has no right to block her way. Women are advancing. They have reason to congratulate themselves on the progress they have made, and the end is not yet.

Precious Stones.

Philadisphia Press.

In the world of frshion the diamor only reigns supreme above all fluctuation and changes. Other fashions may con and go, but a fine strue, outside of the seing, the style of which varies from time time, is much the same and marketable always at a fair value. There is a steadily always at a fair value. There is a steadily inceresting fashion for colored stones. People of wealth supply themselves with diamonds and then turn their attention to other precious stones. Consequently all manner of odd gems are in demand, and whatever is out of the common run is engerly sought for. Red diamonds, raffron diamonds of decided tint, not merely yellowish, mark you, and pink rapphires are valuable for their rarity, while tournalines, topax:s, amethvat, aqua marines, beryls and all the host of precious and semi-precious cones are again in fashion. Emeralds, which a year or two cious and semi-precious stones are again in fashion. Emeralds, which a year or two ago were under a cloud, are once more in vogue, and have risen in value accordingly. Garner, also, have come back into fashion; but they must be exceptionally fine and of fair size. The tiny garnetis which are so abundant in certain localitics are still to be had for a trifle. Opals are well worn and cat's-eyes grow more and more in favor among fashionable circles. Lapis luzli and jacinth are polished into amirror-like brilliancy and made into scaripins or set round with precious stones.

Ngayour debility, indicated by a lots of memory, universal isastitude, constant fatigue, vivid dreaming, unnatural excitements, fits of dizziness, etc., is quickly cured by using Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Barssparilla. This remedy purifies the blood, strengthens the weak portions of the body, quies the nerves, produces dreamless slumber, and is the only remedy that permanently cures the many distressful ailments resulting from nervous debility.

I am receiving my fall stock of women's, misses and childrens shoes and mens fine calf hand-sewed shoes in all the different styles to which I invite an inspection. I have added several new lines to those I have been keeping heretofore, making a complete assorment of fine and medium goods.

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

"While with Churchill's army, just before the battle of Vicksburg, I contracted a severe cold, which terminated in a dangerous cough. I found no relief till on our march we came to a country store, where, on asking for some remedy, I was urged to try ATEE'S CHERRY PECTORAL.
"I did so, and was rapidly cured. Since then I have kept the PECTORAL constantly by me, for family use, and I have found it to be an invaluable remedy for throat and lung diseases.

J. W. WHITLEY."

Thousands of testimonials certify to the prompt cure of all bronchial and lung affections, by the use of Aven's CHERRY PECTORAL. Being very palatable, the youngest children take it readily.

A very pretty decoration can be made by scooping out the inside of a sweet potato, leaving a wall of moderate thickness; suspend it by cords passed through holes bored in the sides, and fill with water; in corts and bored in the sides, and fill with water; in a short time sprays will spront forth and completely cover with dainty green tendrils this rather homely vegetable basket. Grass growing in pine cones that have been sprinkled with soil gives a cifeerful look to a room in winter. Parlor ivy is a very desirable climber for indoors; place in a small pot a few sprays of this plant, and set the pot in a wooden or metal bracket, fastened by the side of a window or near a pedestal; the ivs will, before mid-winter, present a inxurious growth.

Care for the extremely small concerns of present a inxurious growth.

Care for the extremely small concerns of the household marks the difference between the truly excellent housekeeper and the poor one. A good many pence if not pounds are saved in the course of a year if the clothes line is brought in and kept dry, instead of being allowed to remain out in all kinds of weather. If you have a strip of board, with a notch in each end, to wind the core on it will be a convenience. An of board, with a notch in each end, to wind the rope on, it will be a convenience. An-other careful practice is to have a busket or bag to keep the clothes pins in, and a place for the basket or bag. Still another is to see that the wall paper is not spoiled by water being allowed to spatter it. The light colored oil cloth made to cover wash-stands is useful, also, to tack up back of the sink and behind the water tank on the range.
